Everything Set For "In An Antique Shoppe" Saturday Evening

To-morrow Saturday evening ought to be a gala time in the Auditorium at East Northfield. Over 30 local people have been working hard for the presentation of the playlet "In An Antique Shoppe." The plot is clever, and the showing of oldtime dresses and manners will be unusual even for Northfield.

The evening's program will begin with a concert by the Mount Hermon Glee Club under the direction of Prof. Irving J. Lawrence. The club will sing six selections. There will also be a piece by a quartet, and Prof. Lawrence will sing two solos.

Further music will be furnished throughout the evening by Leon E. Dummell at the piano, assisted by Mrs. Elliott Spear and Miss Mira B. Wilson, violins. There will also be a pleasing program of oldtime songs in the successive episodes of the "Antique Shoppe," with solos and duets in which Miss Arline Prevost, Mrs. Mildred Addison, Mrs. Harry J. Foley, Miss Dorothy Pearson, and Prof. Lawrence will figure.

Mrs. Allen Manville Schaffer of New York, who will play the shop girl, has been in town since last Monday, staying with Mr. and Mrs. Pitt. When a student at Mt. Holyoke College Mrs. Schaffer was leader of the glee club and active in dramatics. During recent years she has written and coached and acted in many plays. She is a frequent contributor to "Good Housekeeping," and has put on many radio programs for WEAF and other systems.

Mr. Spear and Miss Wilson have urged the students of the Northfield Schools to support this entertainment for the benefit of Brattleboro Memorial Hospital by their presence.

The names of Miss Lydia Speakman and Mrs. Whittaker were inadvertently omitted last week from the list of graduate nurses who will serve as ushers.

Either "Wet" Or "Dry" Election June 13th Local License Option

The constitutional convention which is to pass upon the repeal of the 18th amendment, will be made up of 45 delegates, three chosen from each of the 15 Congressional districts. At the special state election to be held in all towns and cities of Massachusetts on June 13 the voters will cast their ballots for either three delegates pledged to act for repeal of the amendment or for three delegates pledged to retain the amendment.

The candidates from our (first) district have been named and are as follows:

For Repeal
Thomas F. Bruley, Holyoke
Charles F. Ely, Westfield
James R. Savory, Pittsfield.

Against Repeal
Rev. Verne Leslie Smith, Greenfield.
William L. DuBois, West Stockbridge.
Elizabeth R. Judd, Northampton.

Also on the ballot in the towns and cities will appear the local question of granting 3.2 per cent wine and beer licenses.

The question as put to the voters is: "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of wines and malt beverages?"

If this question is voted in the affirmative it will mean that beer may be handled and sold in Northfield. If voted in the negative licenses will be prohibited here.

Every voter has a real interest in this matter and a heavy poll is expected at Northfield Town Hall on Tuesday June 13th.

The Physical Directors

The Physical Directors who attended the annual "get together" of Massachusetts and Rhode Island at the Northfield Hotel last week report that they were splendidly entertained and had an unusually interesting conference. The banquet was a splendid success and the entertainment program at the Chateau met merited approval.

Next Tuesday is Memorial Day and its observance is an annual affair. The plans by the Committee in charge have been completed and now announced. On Sunday morning all members of the Patriotic orders are invited to attend church service at the local Congregational Church when Rev. W. Stanley Carne will deliver the sermon and appropriate music will be rendered.

At one o'clock Sunday a dinner will be served at Vernon and the service will be in the church there at two o'clock with Prof. F. L. Duley of Northfield Seminary as the speaker.

The Grand Army of the Republic, the American Legion, Spanish American War Veterans and of other forces are invited to attend. Rev. E. E. Jones the pastor of the church will preside.

Following this meeting a short service will be held at the Tyler Cemetery.

On Tuesday Memorial Day the parade in Northfield will assemble at the Town Hall at 8:30 o'clock A. M. and proceed at nine o'clock under the Marshall Clarence M. Steadler in the usual order. The G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps, American Legion, Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Union War Veterans and other patriotic units with the school children will be headed by the Orange Legion Drum Corps and will proceed to Alexander Hall where the G. A. R. tablet will be decorated. The parade will then move to Center Cemetery for a brief exercise, return to Town Hall to decorate the Legion tablet and then will follow the public meeting in Town Hall. The speaker will be the Rev. Lester P. White of Mount Hermon.

Mr. Harold Bigelow, Chairman of the Committee will preside. It is hoped that the public will attend in large numbers this Memorial service in Town Hall.

Grange To Attend

In response to an invitation, members of the Northfield Grange will attend the Memorial Service at the Congregational Church next Sunday May 29 and sit in a body. All members are urged to meet at the church at 10:45 A. M.

Friendship Rally Of Young Folks Held Saturday

Delegations of junior boys and girls from the Franklin County Sunday Schools held a "friendship rally" at the local Congregational Church last Saturday afternoon. Exercises were held on the lawn and a supper luncheon was served. There was a large number who attended.

The rally opened at 2:30 p.m. with the Northfield Sunday school orchestra playing a prelude and Miss Margaret Carne giving the address of welcome.

A song service led by Rev. W. Stanley Carne and devotions led by Mrs. Charles G. White followed. Miss Helen Durgin of Northfield rendered a violin solo.

Miss Charlotte Owl of Mt. Holyoke college, a full-blooded Indian by birth gave a talk on "Indian Customs."

Women Hold Luncheon And End Year's Work

The annual meeting of the Fort-nightly club was held at the Northfield Hotel on Saturday afternoon with an attendance of nearly sixty members. A luncheon was served by the hotel management in the large dining room and was greatly appreciated by all. The tables were decorated with cut flowers and plants. Mrs. F. H. Montague as President of the club presided at the business session and an entertainment followed. Since officers are elected for two years there was no election. The officers are as follows:

Mrs. F. H. Montague, president; Rev. Mary Andrews Conner, vice president; Mrs. C. M. Steadler, second vice president; Mrs. H. J. Foley, recording secretary; Mrs. A. H. Wright, treasurer; Miss Ina Merriman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. A. Lewis, auditor.

Librarians Meet Here

The Librarians of the State will gather in Northfield June 5th to 7th with headquarters at the Northfield Hotel. There will be a joint meeting of the State Association with the Western Mass. Library Club and the sessions will meet at the Chateau and in Dickinson Library Hall by invitation of the Trustees.

Large Crowd Expected For Religious Education Northfield Conference

An enrolment of 600 persons from many states is expected for the 30th annual session of the Northfield summer conference of religious education to be held at East Northfield July 18 to 28. Seven denominational boards of education and the New England inter-denominational state councils of religious education have cooperated in choosing the board of managers of the Northfield conference. The seven denominations co-operating in this enterprise are: Baptist, Congregational and Christian Methodist Episcopal, Presbyterian, Protestant Episcopal, Unitarian and Universalist.

A spirit of adventure which will serve to put churches and religion upon a new footing to meet the new problems of human life individual and social is asked of the Sunday-school workers who will enrol for the conference. In announcing this year's curriculum the dean of the conference, Rev. Dr. Herbert W. Gates of Boston, general secretary for religious education in the Congregational and Christian denomination, stresses the point that a further enrichment of the training in worship has been planned for this coming season. This training will center around the daily chapel services in Sage chapel.

Twenty-six courses of instruction will be given by a faculty of 37 at the conference this summer. Activities for recreation, fun and good fellowship will be scheduled to more than fill all the available hours. The conference has a special young people's division for those who are 16 to 22 years of age.

Canning Factory Possibility In Warwick

According to the officers of the newly organized Interstate Small-Fruit Growers' association, which was formed recently by farmers of several surrounding towns, there is a very good possibility that a canning factory may be erected in Warwick in the not far distant future.

Jesse H. Buffum of Warwick, president of the association, is highly enthusiastic with the idea but states that "the plans are very immature at this time but he has hopes of the future."

Small fruits, and especially raspberries, can be profitably raised in Warwick and other nearby towns. If there are enough farmers in this and other communities who become interested, and if they feel they are so becoming, we may very possibly build a small canning plant in Warwick.

Farmers from several nearby towns gathered recently in Warwick town hall and there enthusiastically organized the Interstate Small-Fruit Growers' association.

Farmers who are interested in the growing of small fruits and who would like to become connected with the movement, are requested to get in touch with George Witherell of Warwick, chairman of the membership committee.

Last Session Held Of Cooking Conference

The final meeting of the series of lectures on "Your Money's Worth" was held Monday evening in the Town Hall. "Simple Deserts" were discussed by the leaders, Mrs. Birdsaill, Mrs. Spear and Mrs. Kehl, and two very popular ones were served.

Mrs. Spear showed some very interesting charts, giving the calory, protein, calcium, phosphorous, iron and vitamin content of several varieties of food used in the average daily diet. It is asked that the individual reports distributed to members be filled out and returned to Mrs. Birdsaill as soon as possible. In order that Miss Foley may judge the value of the course has been to residents of Northfield.

Four Forest Camps Given To The County In Reforestation Aid

State Commissioner of Conservation York has announced in Boston that plans are made to give employment to six thousand men in work in state forests under the national plan to aid unemployment. This large group of workers will constitute a civilian conservation corps and the men are to be selected through the various welfare boards of the towns and cities. Men with families or single men who will aid their folks will be selected. In Franklin County camp will be established, one at Charlemont on the Mohawk Trail 5400 acres, one at the Erving (State Forest) 4,626 acres covering Erving, Northfield and Warwick and another at Monroe 4,116 acres covering Monroe, Rowe and Florida.

How many will be selected from Northfield we do not know but it is understood that some applications have been made. It will be a fine opportunity for some to accept a chance to do work and a great deal better than loafing around waiting for "something to turn up." Thirty men will be selected from Greenfield.

Parsons Says Peril For Children Grave

The present demoralization in certain industries is a social peril said Herbert C. Parsons, former commissioner of probation, new executive secretary of the Massachusetts Child Labor Committee in a statement published in the Boston Evening American last Saturday. Mr. Parsons who is so well known in Northfield has this to say with reference to the employment of children particularly under "sweat-shop" conditions.

"Every person concerned in the welfare of childhood keenly realizes that the present demoralization in certain industries, marked by the scandalously low wages paid to children, is a social peril and an individual and domestic injury and that all the resources of the community should be marshalled to put an end to what is not less than an inquiry."

Manchurian Facts Given To Church Group At Northfield Hotel

The spring meeting of the Franklin County Congregational Club was held Tuesday evening at the Northfield Hotel with a banquet and business meeting preceding an address by Professor George H. Blakeslee of Clark University, Worcester, who spoke on "The Crisis in Manchuria." More than 150 attended the dinner and heard the address. President Roy R. Hatch of Mount Hermon presided.

Dr. Blakeslee described the experience of the Lytton Commission, of which he was a member, during its six months' study of the acute issues between China and Japan. He gave especially a good deal of evidence, some of it not in the Report, to show the correctness of the conclusions of the Lytton Commission, that the Japanese forces in Manchuria had not acted in self-defense but had committed a military aggression, and that the Japanese created Manchukuo and not the Chinese. He pointed out that the five members of the Commission and the entire staff of technical advisers and experts were all in complete agreement as to the responsibility of the Japanese for the military advance into Manchuria.

As to the future, many financial authorities in the Far East doubt the ability of Japan to finance the increasingly heavy costs of its military operations in Northern China. The new Japanese budget for the coming year, recently adopted by the Japanese Diet, provides for expenditures 70 per cent greater than the anticipated revenues—and these expenditures are largely due to the Manchurian adventure and the re-equipment of the Japanese army.

A new Alliance Lytton Commission, of which he was a member, during its six months' study of the acute issues between China and Japan. He gave especially a good deal of evidence, some of it not in the Report, to show the correctness of the conclusions of the Lytton Commission, that the Japanese forces in Manchuria had not acted in self-defense but had committed a military aggression, and that the Japanese created Manchukuo and not the Chinese. Unitarians To Affiliate With Universalists In A Free Church

A special to The Herald to-day from Boston states that the American Unitarian Association meeting in Boston which is attended by delegates from the Northfield Unitarian Church have voted favorably to affiliate with the Universalist denomination in the establishment of the Free Church of America. It is expected that Rev. Mary Andrews Conner who is at Boston will probably make a full announcement to the local congregation upon her return to Northfield.

Roberts At Rotary

Albert E. Roberts, alumni secretary and general will acquire secretary to the board of trustees of the Northfield schools addressed the Rotary Club at Greenfield this week at their regular meeting at the Weldon Hotel on "Some Things I Learned from the California Earthquake." Connected with the national Y. M. C. A.

council many years, Mr. Roberts spent the past year in travel in the interests of both the council and Mount Hermon school. He visited 45 Mount Hermon clubs throughout the country and was at Long Beach at the time of the earthquake.

Mr. Roberts was given a cordial reception and all present listened with much interest to his personal experiences.

The Eastern States Exposition have announced their fair dates as September 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23, which is the third week in September.

The body of Howard H. Wyman 19 of Riverside who with his grandfather Harper Savage were swept to their death over the Turners Falls dam April 18 was found the first of the week at Hadley, Mass., where a 12 year old Hadley boy, Frank Waiter came upon it at the bank of the Connecticut river.

Wyman and Savage were in a small boat gathering driftwood near Barton's Cove during the height of the flood when the boat capsized.

Wyman was survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wyman, and a sister, Alice. Burial was in the Riverside Cemetery.

May 15, 1933

Time and again I am told—by my own organization and by others—that I penalize myself by quality.

Friendly critics protest our putting into the Ford V-8 what they call "twenty-year steel." They say such quality is not necessary; the public does not expect it; and that the public does not know the difference anyway.

But I know the difference.

I know that the car a man sees is not the car he drives—he drives the car which the engineer sees. The car which is seen, comprises beauty of design, color and attractive accessories—all desirable, of course. The best evidence that we think so is that they are all found on the Ford V-8.

But these are not the car. The car proper, which is the basis of all the rest, is the type of engine and its reliability; the structure of chassis and body, ruggedly durable; the long thought and experiment given to safety factors; the steady development of comfort, convenience and economy. These make the car.

A car can be built that will last two or three years. But we have never built one. We want the basic material of our car to be as dependable the day it is discarded as the day it is bought. Ford cars built 15 years ago are still on the road. It costs more to build a durable car—but two items we do not skimp are cost and conscience. A great many things could "get by"—the public would never know the difference. But we would know.

The new Ford V-8 is a car that I endorse without any hesitancy. I know what is in it. I trust our whole thirty years' reputation with it. It is even better than our previous V-8. It is larger, more rugged and mechanically a better job all round.

I readily say this in an advertisement because I know the car will back it up.

EDITORIAL

It is assumed that every citizen is interested in America's biggest investment, boys and girls. The contributing public has a right to ask and the right to know, why money is raised, how it is spent and who makes the expenditures in every appeal for public support. In the appeal now inaugurated for the support of the Boy Scout work in Franklin-Hampshire County the County Council has given a good account of its stewardship and needs the money for supervisory effort. Help them in their splendid undertaking.

Those who heard the splendid radio program last Sunday evening over W. A. B. C. of Capello Choir of St. Olaf Lutheran College of Northfield, Minn., enjoyed a rare privilege. The music was of a religious character and well rendered and emphasizes the value of such effort in all schools and colleges. As Prof. Gruber has said "that school or college which dwells musical development within its student body loses one of the highest spiritual attainments in the life of both student and institution. The Catholic, Lutheran and Episcopal Church stand preeminently for spiritual attainments through music."

Business conditions have improved steadily since the latter part of March.

Greater activity and generally higher prices characterized the commodity and security markets after gold exports were suspended. Steel mills have gone to more than 25 per cent of capacity, after the drop to 15 per cent in March. Automobile output has rapidly expanded. Department store merchandise sales are sharply increasing. Lumber and electric power production, both good indicators, have advanced. Some improvement has been registered in loadings. The farmer's markets show similar advances, with gains reaching and holding better levels.

Memorial Day should be observed by all. It is a time honored custom in that we should revere the memory of our dead. Not only those who have fallen in battle but of all those loved ones we have laid away—our last sleep. Decoration Day is a good day to recount the virtues and noble lives of those who have gone before. May Northfield not be found wanting.

THE RED SASSENACH

(Pronounced Sas-i-nar) Therein was a spendthrift—the lad he was old—
But his blood it was blue and he needs must love gold;
So castle and cottage and land near and far
Was mortgaged away to the Red
Sassenach.

The heir was a spendthrift—the lad was old—
He died—rest his soul! And they laid him in mould;
Then to his destiny followed his star
And the land was the land of the Red Sassenach.

The tenants lamented the tidings
to hear:
Their hearts were sore full of foreboding and fear;
Old images were aroused like the sting of a scar
At the dreaded approach of the Red Sassenach!

His language was cruel—his glance
was the same;
The look and his back was the color of flame;
And dread as the coming of Jugernaut's Car
Was the advent areday of the Red
Sassenach.

His manner was ribald, — his speech was profane—
He uttered God's Name—but he took it in vain;
They would have withstood him
with bolt and with bar
But they feared the revenge of the Red Sassenach.

The tenantry gathered to see him go by,
He gazed at the throng with a pitiless eye
"The swine have come in from their pastures a-far!"
With a curl of his lip said the Red
Sassenach.

The Lord of Kilkerly was true to his breed;
His tenants were feted to bow to bleed;
And he cried like the war-horse that utters "Ha! Ha!"
The Irish yields to the Red
Sassenach!

He threatened the priest—he in-sulted the poor
The beggar was sent with a curse
from his door;
For tax and for rental he took crop and beast
And the laborers fasted to spread him a feast.

His substance he squandered on wantons and wine
And laughed, in his sleeve of Justice Divine!
And Satan seemed present and Heaven a-far
To such sojourned with the Red
Sassenach.

The waiting was weary the watching was long—
For Truth is not hasty and Error
is strong;
But a man warn his fate no contrivance can bar
And Nemesis followed with the Red Sassenach.

To Mona McConnell's a-wooing he went
And asked for the damsel in place of the rent.
Fair Mona repulsed him: "I've lock and I've bar
To humble your pride!" quoth the Red Sassenach.

Away to his castle the maiden he bore,
And shattered the window and bolted the door;
Her father and friends followed fast—followed far—
But Satan be-friended the Red
Sassenach!

Four bold boys of Kerry then uttered a pledge
To lie near his lordship some night in a hedge;
"Our sisters and sweethearts O,
Sassenach Red Respect if you would the brains in your head!"

One night when the land-lord was riding—alone—
The moon all at once, faded out as it shone;
The blackness was INKY—there burned not a star—
And the Devil laid hold on the Red
Sassenach!

WHEN CHURCH BELLS CALL

In summer time when church bells call
Across the hills in country towns
How clear and strong the far tones fall
As walk to church, in proper gown

The housewives, herding flocks to prayer!
Hands that hard labor twisted, now
Are free from ache of earth-time toll;
Bowed shoulders, bent behind the plow
Have broken bond with barn and soil
An unseen host walks with them there.

"O Paradise! O Paradise!"
"O Perfect Sabbath Rest!"
Oh how can earth the heart suffice
Till we with grace are blest!
The peace we at our best attain
Sweet bells invite anew:
The joys our highest loves obtain
The Unseen offers you! (C) O.

NEW ENGLAND LILACS

Sweet lilacs, heralds of the past,
Dear purple bearded pioneers,
The hands that planted you are dust,
But you grow sturdy, year by year.
A homestead occupied this spot,
Now long since fallen to decay,

Your gorgeous blooms have fed the bees
For a hundred flowering Mays.

A gaunt old apple tree still guards
The walled in cellar, all grass grown, Briars and creepers mark the hearth,
The chimney is a pile of stones.

As to the western plains afar,
Their way the covered wagons wound,
With household goods the lilac
went,
Reminder of New England ground.

O fragrant shrub of early days,
With graceful branches spreading wide,
Seek with your royal purple robe
The ancient scars of time to hide.

THE GUESTS OF GOD

From the dust of the weary highway—
From the smart of sorrow's rod
Into the royal presence—
They are bidden as guest of God.
The veil from their eyes is taken Sweet mysteries they are shown
Their doubts and fears are over
For they know as they are known.

For them there should be rejoicing
And festival array;
As for the bride in her beauty
Whom joy hath taken away—
Sweet hours of peaceful waiting Till the path that we have trod
Shall end at the Father's gateway
And we are the guests of God.

JOYS

I have a sunny window
With an outlook wondrous fair,
I take many a splendid journey
While sitting in my chair.

There is a gorgeous Quince bush,
Filled with blossoms pink and red,
Where many birds come constantly,
For the Nectar for them spread.

When they spread their wings and fly,
With many a flash of gold,
I dream that I am flying too,
And many a tale I'm told.

Sir Baltimore, my Oriole
Has a home high in a tree,
He shows me how they build a nest
And his Mate and Babies three.

Then my Ruby Throated "Hummie,"
How we watch for him each day,
Our hearts just thrill with gladness
For these joys that come each
May.

Every day come other Birds,
Each in a different dress,
Their ways are very wonderful,
As our lives they come to bless.

The Flowers are fast appearing
Up from the warm, soft Earth,
Teaching that out of homely things
Beautiful things take birth.

They are tall and short and different,
With colors of every hue,
Oh! isn't it just wonderful?
I am glad I'm alive, aren't you?

So I sit in my chair in the sunshine,
Thinking of Nature's ways,
And I am glad for my sunny window,
Glad for these beautiful days.

A Money Getter

J. Endicott Reid of Boston is in the toils of the law and committed to jail by Judge Ball of district court because he was unable to furnish $1,000 bail pending the disposition of the case against him.
Reid visited the Deerfield inn about December 5, 1932 and while there attempted to cash a check for $150. He was not accommodated, though Mr. Tullis gave him $15 of the desired sum. Reid departed early the next morning and was finally located at Washington, D. C., by Chief of Police Redmond of Deerfield where he was serving a sentence for a similar offense. It is said he obtained $20 from the Northfield hotel in the same way, and to be wanted in Baltimore on a like charge. The Northfield complaint will figure against him in further proceedings.

It is understood that authorization has been received from the reconstruction finance corporation for an allotment of funds required

Must Raise Funds

To Support Council
For Boy Scout Work

A campaign for funds to raise $6100 to support the work of the Hampshire-Franklin County Boy Scout work is on from May 31 to June 7th and many in Northfield will be appealed to for assistance.
Dr. A. H. Wright is a member of the finance committee and Messrs.
A. P. Fitt, Lester Polhemus, Harold Bigelow, Alfred Evans and George McGowan are captains of the solicitors teams. This money will provide for the 1933 budget and repay a borrowing for 1932.
Amherst and Northampton have agreed to provide $3,000 of the sum required leaving $3100 to be raised in Franklin County. No quota has been fixed for Northfield but it is hoped the subscriptions will be plenty and generous. The money is raised for administration purposes only of the Council and for the supervision of the work in the two counties.

Over 1,000 boys are at the present time registered in the Scout Movement in Hampshire-Franklin Counties and receiving the benefit of a program that stands high in American public opinion. The Council has had an increase of 27 per cent in membership during the past six months and has greater possibilities when we consider that 1,000 boys in this council reach the age of 12 each year.

The present cost is approximately 11 cents a week per boy now enlisted with an increasing number being constantly reached through the Scout program and the younger boy program of Cubs for boys 9, 10 and 11 years of age. As the membership increases, the cost per boy is lowered.

Three hundred and twenty volunteer men in this Council gave the past year an average of at least two hours a week to further the work of the Boy Scouts of America. Men chosen because of leadership, character and love for boys. Men from all walks of life.
Doctors, lawyers, bankers, merchants, mechanics and so this list goes on. If we valued their services at even fifty cents an hour, do you realize what it would mean?
$320.00 a week or $16,640 a year.
Just that! And again, it is your support that has encouraged them to make their investment in this great program for boys.

Boy Scout Rally
At Greenfield Saturday

Hampshire - Franklin council.
Boy Scouts of America will hold the first public outdoor rally in its history on Saturday afternoon with a street parade through Greenfield and a public demonstration at the fairgrounds as features.

Over 700 scouts and their leaders will take part in this show which precedes the council's annual drive for funds. The fairgrounds will take on a colorful appearance as dozens of troops, uniformed in regulation khaki and sporting gay hued neckerchiefs, compete in feats of woodlore, signalling and first aid.

Although many of the troops are planning to assemble at the fairgrounds Friday night, the rally and exhibitions will not officially open until Saturday at 1:15 p.m.
when the boys will form a parade.
They will march from their campgrounds up Bank Row to Main street, and then continue through the main streets of the town, finally returning to the fairgrounds.
Music for the marching will be furnished by the Greenfield Public Schools band, Amherst American Legion drum corps, South Deerfield boys drum corps, Shelburne Falls Boy Scouts band and possibly the Erving drum and bugle corps. Commissioner William C.
Fitts of Northampton will act as marshal and council officials will march with the boys.
The Northfield Boy Scout Troop will march in a body and participate in the affair under the direction of Scoutmaster Lewis Wood.

Safety Program
On Our Highways

The safety program of the Governor's committee on Street and Highway Safety began last week and will be continued all summer.
The highways of Northfield and throughout Franklin County will be supervised by the State Police on regular duty.

A list of violations which will be checked this year will appear in the same order on the tags as in previous years but the order does not necessarily mean that the police will concentrate their principal efforts on the first violations of the list. The list is as follows:

- Failing to operate at a reasonable and proper rate of speed.
- Residential districtal driving.
- Congested or business.
- Adjacent to school or playground.
- Outside business or residential district.
- Passing another car going in the same direction when view was obstructed.
- Failing to keep to the right hand side of the road.
- Failing to slow down at intersections.
- Failing to slow down on approach to pedestrians.
- Failing to observe the eight-foot law with respect to standing street cars.
- Violation of traffic control devices.
- Traffic signals.
- Stop signs.
- Dangerous and improper parking.
- State Highways.
- Double parking.
- Wrong side of street.
- Too close to corner.

Visitor—Does this town boast of a hotel?
Native—No, it apologizes for it.
"Has the non-attendance been a long practical joke?"
"I should say so. Three ball teams are after him to sign for the season."

Congregational Church

There was a full program of services at the Congregational Church on Sunday. In the morning the pastor preached the sermon upon "Man as God's Treasure" supplemented with special music by the choir. The Junior Endeavor met at four o'clock in the Vestry, at seven o'clock the Christian Endeavor meeting was held and in the evening was the preaching service with special music.

Sunday evening, Prof. R. C. Barrus of Mount Hermon with a number of students conducted the service at the Farms. Wednesday afternoon a prayer service was held at Mrs. Bennett's and in the evening a service was held at the Farms. Thursday afternoon a service was held in the home of Mrs. Irvin Upham and in the evening was the regular church prayer meeting. At six o'clock Mr. A. P. Pitt conducted his class for Sunday school teachers at a luncheon meeting.

South Church

The Mothers' Day Carnations on the altar were sent to some "shut in friends." They were given by Mrs. W. A. Barr in memory of her aunts, the Misses Osgood.

The regular sewing meeting of the Alliance was not held last Thursday May 25th. Instead there was a food sale at 3 o'clock on the church lawn.

The Grenfells' At Wilson's

An outstanding event of the present season will be the visit of Sir Wilfred and Lady Grenfell at Wilson's Department Store in Greenfield on Monday, May 29. An exhibition and sale of northern handicraft will be held at Wilson's all next week.

Hooked rugs of the finest workmanship, many of them designed by Sir Wilfred; bedspreads and scarves from hand looms, centuries old; gray knitted mitts and socks; hand-carved ivories and wooden toys; all made by the women and men of Labrador, are included in this interesting display. The industrial department, which gives employment to 2,000 women and disabled men, is a part of the comprehensive, constructive relief program that is being carried on over 1500 miles of bleak, rocky coast line.

This phase of the work supplies one of the biggest needs of these pioneer housewives, remunerative labor, for their great desire is not charity, but a mere chance to help themselves. Through the money resulting from rug hooking, knitting and weaving, many families are fed and clothed in a way that spells the difference between resistance and non-resistance to tuberculosis, rickets, beri-beri and other nutritional diseases that are the scourge of northern countries. The ability to earn money has changed the economic standing of women, and has brought stimulus and pleasure into lives that were all too drab.

Seminary Items

Last Saturday night, May 20th, a demonstration night was held in the gymnasium. There were exhibitions of tumbling, dancing, swimming and apparatus work. The athletic letters and awards were given out to girls who had not completed their points the last time awards were made.

The Senior Class of Northfield Seminary observed their annual Class Day on Tuesday, May 16th. They enjoyed a trip through Brattleboro, Walpole and Keene to Swansy Lake where supper was served, returning to the Seminary about nine o'clock.

Reverend S. V. Holmes, D. D., of Westminster Church, Buffalo, New York was the speaker at Russell Sage Chapel at both services last Sunday.

Dr. J. Lawney, Dean of Medical College of Margaret Williams Hospital, Shanghai, China, spoke to the Seminary students at Russell Sage Chapel on Tuesday, May 16. Dr. Lawney is a former Seminary student, and has spent 14 years in the medical field in China from which she is now on furlough.

Mr. P. W. Wilson of Spuyten Duyvil, New York, will be the speaker at both morning and evening services in Russell Sage Chapel on Sunday, May 28th.

Miss Ellen Mary Edson of Northfield has been elected a Student Officer at East Hall.

Hold Supper

The Thrifty Cannery 4-H Club did not meet last Friday. The members have planned for a California Chicken Supper in the Grange Hall June 2nd at 6.30 o'clock. There are a limited number of tickets so buy your ticket early and be sure of your supper. Tickets may be bought from any of the club members or from Mrs. Cossett, the Leader. Any one who will contribute something toward the supper but who will not be able to attend please communicate with Mrs. Cossett. The girls have just half of the money needed for their camp fund now in their treasury.

Elizabeth Miller, Reporter.

Christian Endeavor

Christian Endeavor last Sunday evening, May 21 was led by Prof. Duley of the Northfield Seminary who gave a most interesting talk to an appreciative audience.

Next Sunday, May 28 the meeting will be in charge of the Missionary Committee who will have for their subject: "How May We Be True to the Missionary Spirit of Christ?" Scripture, Matt. 28: 16-20.

The June 13th state election will be held for the purpose of electing wet and dry delegates to a state constitutional convention to be held at the call of Gov. Joseph R. Ely to act upon ratification of the 21st amendment to the U. S. constitution, which, if passed, would nullify the 18th (prohibition) amendment.

Mt. Hermon Items

The May meeting of the Ladies' Literary Society was held last Thursday evening at the home of Headmaster and Mrs. Elliott A. Speer with Professor Ralph Harlowe of the Bible Department at Smith College as the speaker. Professor Harlowe spoke on "The Social Implications of the Scottsboro Case," reviewing its background and history, the legal tangles and difficulties encountered in its procedure, the perjuries and prejudices that developed as it progressed; in his opinion, he said, the important point in the case was the establishing of whether or not negroes could serve on Southern juries. The men on the faculty and school staff were guests of the Society at this meeting. Mrs. Carroll Rickett, president-elect, announced that the general topic for next year's meetings will be "Our World Neighbors."

Last Sunday evening the Press Club was entertained at supper with the Seminary Press Club by Miss Myra B. Wilson, principal of the Seminary. After the supper, Mr. Frederick A. Wilmot, of the Providence "Journal" was introduced by Mr. Albert E. Roberts, and spoke on the organization of a modern newspaper. GOODYEAR certainly makes it worth while for you to put money in tires now. Your dollars never bought tires to equal the quality, the safety, the mileage which Goodyear is today building in every tire wearing the Goodyear name.

And because Goodyear now concentrates on two main lines of tires—real saving in costs is passed on to you.

Look at the present prices of the world's most popular tire, the Goodyear All-Weather — and the prices of the thrifty Goodyear Pathfinder — and you'll certainly agree, it's smart to buy Goodyears NOW—while prices are still down close to bottom, and your money buys more than it may ever buy again.

Baseball Is Started Good Games Assured

The local baseball season opened with a "bang" this week when the local boys took Bernardston over the bumps last Thursday evening to the tune of 21-2. Bistrek, the Northfield team's starting pitcher, allowed only one hit in the five innings he pitched and Paul Urganiewicz who assumed the mound duty in the fifth allowed only one hit while he was winding.

Meanwhile the local boys were clicking off base hits nearly as fast as they could get up to the plate. Manager Dean Williams connected for a home run, a triple, a single and got two free tickets in his five trips to the plate. Clayt, Glazier who was doing a fine job of receiving behind the plate in the absence of Johnny Kersavage due to sickness got three singles and a double out of five times up. Stan Bistrek contributed a three bagger and Eddie Scoble a home run for the rest of the long distance hitting.

Besides the heavy hitting of the local boys the battery work of Bistrek, Urganiewicz and Glazier featured.

"Gym" Classes Have Closing Exhibit

The town boys will have their closing evening at the Hermon gym for the present season next Monday. It will be open night for visitors, who will find seats in the running track ahead. Parents and friends interested in this work are especially invited to be present, beginning at 7:30. Instructor Henry Crusius will put the boys through their usual program of calisthenics. This will be followed by relay races and other athletic games, including basketball. It is hoped that the ban on the pool owing to the prevalence of pink eye at Mount Hermon may be lifted by next Monday.

High Team Loses Two Ball Games

After winning the first game with Charlesmont, it defeated Northfield on its own field Tuesday, 7-6. Three runs were tallied in the ninth inning, giving the game to Charlesmont.

A three-bagger in the last inning by Winchester beat Northfield, 6-5, last Friday. Northfield collected many hits but they were too scattered to send the necessary runs over the plate.

Hermon Track Meet

The Annual Inter-Class outdoor track meet of Mount Hermon School will be held on Monday, May 29th at 9:30 a.m., and at 2 p.m. The morning events will be the one-half mile run, the hammer throw, discus, javelin, 165 meter, discus, broad jump, and two mile run.

In the afternoon will be the high hurdles, shot put, high jump, 100 yard dash, one quarter mile run, mile run, pole vault and relay race.

The captains of the various classes are as follows:—Seniors, T. W. Polhemus, Juniors, R. M. Adams, Sophomores, D. A. Campbell and Freshman, R. H. Wilcox. The events are under the supervision of A. B. Forslund the Physical Director.

4-H Baseball

The Everready 4-H Club Handicraft started their baseball season with a winning score 6 to 5 on Tuesday, May 23rd.

The Hurley twins had their best players out but they could not do much to Walter Lucien's pitching especially when there were men on bases.

The game was full of excitement all the way through and many sensational plays were mixed into every inning.

Each team cleaned ten hits and no errors. All seats were taken and Mr. Baxter was seen watching the game from the High School building.

This strong 4-H team is looking for games with outside teams like East Northfield, South Vernon or even as far as Northfield Farms. Clarence Webber, Mgr.

"Henry" said his baggage wife as he prepared to retire, "I'm everyting shut up for the night?" "That depends on you," muttered Henry, "everything else is."

Baseball Game For Memorial Day

On Memorial Day at 2:30 o'clock on the Hotel grounds the Northfield baseball team will appear decked out in their new uniforms and will try and see what they can do towards giving the fans a good ball game against the strong Shelburne Falls team.

The local boys will try, and avenge the defeat suffered by them last Memorial Day at the hands of this same team. It promises to be a very interesting game and it is hoped that a large crowd will be on hand to witness this annual contest between these two teams.

Mt. Greylock Dedication Soon

Preparations are rapidly nearing completion for the formal dedication of the great Massachusetts War Memorial Beacon on the summit of Mt. Greylock. Weather permitting, the ceremony will take place about June 15. Watch papers for date.

Governor Joseph P. Ely will accept the memorial on behalf of the Commonwealth from Col. William H. Eaton of Pittsfield. Chairman of the Memorial Commission, former Governor Frank C. Allen, under whose administration work was begun, will be an honored guest.

Start making your plans now for a trip to Mt. Greylock. Better get there early for thousands of guests are expected. Why not arrive in the early morning and enjoy a picnic lunch on the State reservation?

Step by step, during the past two years the large granite blocks of this tower have mounted skyward, attracting the attention of thousands of motorists traveling thru the Berkshires.

The circular shaft of the memorial is 100 feet high, surmounted by a group of gigantic searchlights visible on a clear night in any direction for 70 miles or more. As Mt. Greylock is on the direct air line from Boston to Albany and Chicago, this light will be of infinite value to aviators of the future. The constant gleam each night will be symbolic of an ever-burning candle in memory of the war dead of the State.

An interesting feature of the lighting system is the electrically driven astronomical time switch which will turn on and off the current to the main lighting panel in the dome at times predetermined by the setting of the mechanism. Thus it will be unnecessary to have a constant attendant.

From the observation room atop the beacon, points in five States are visible. To the north, the Green and White mountains, and the rugged Adirondacks. To the south and east, the fertile valleys and gentle slopes of the Berkshires and the Connecticut hills. It is a glorious view at any time. Why not be among those who will see it on the opening day?

Tours and Detours.

New England

New England has five thousand miles of mountain trails through deep forest and over mile-high summits. It has hundreds upon hundreds of miles of sea-coast—wave-battered granite buffeting the gray Atlantic and level sand warm to the tip of bay waters. It has thousands of beautiful lakes at the foot of green hills or hidden in cool woods. It has mile after mile of paved highway leading to these trails and beaches and lakes. It has golf courses everywhere, in a climate where fairways do not burn. In summer it holds relief from Southern heat and city dust, and in winter its hills are a white invitation to skis and snowshoes. Two hours from New York, and the traveler can begin his ramble in the Connecticut hills. Three hours, and he can be in the Berkshires. Half a day, and he can begin the long trail up the sky-spine of the Green Mountains. The White Mountains of New Hampshire will lift him for miles above timberline. Katahdin in Maine will give him, in the heart of the wilderness, the finest precipices of the Rockies. An hour from New York along the Sound, and the New England shore begins with every kind of coast water, cape and inland, to the Bay of Fundy. But all this is still not New England. New England is more than mountain, lake and ocean, golf course and hotel, bathing beach and forest trail. It is a land of ancient memories dear to every American, of landscapes mellowed by three hundred years of human occupation, of villages grown gray and lovely under immemorial elms, of houses proud with the grace of the eighteenth century, and fields where our fathers fought for freedom. New England offers recreation in full variety. But recreation means recreation of the spirit by its unique and old-world charm, by its rich and beautiful reminders of our national history. Summer or winter, it has rewards for every visitor. —Foreword by Walter Prichard Eaton in "New England," issued by New England Council.

TWO national heroes and Dan Cupid are commemorated in February, so let's be ready with several cake recipes for the planned party or for friends who may drop in. Whether the occasion be St. Valentine's Day, Washington's or Lincoln's birthdays, these cakes will do the trick.

Valentine Cake

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Add flavoring. Fold in egg whites. Bake in greased pan, 8 x 8 x 2 inches, in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes. Spread boiled frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. Sprinkle moist, sweetened coconut on sides of cake. Decorate top with red cinnamon candy hearts.

Lest We Forget the Ideals for Which They Fought

TUESDAY all of the United States will join in paying tribute to the nation's war dead and veterans — in the annual reverent ceremony of Memorial Day. Flowers will be strewn on our heroes' graves, flags will fly proudly above parades, and bugles will sound the last salute to the fallen.

These men were the country's defenders, venturing their lives for the sake of great ideals and principles. It their patriotic devotion which gave us our Independence, our Union, and our Freedom. In honoring them we not only show our gratitude for what they did, but our love for the country whose banner they followed.

Is it not fitting for us, in these times of economic stress, to rededicate ourselves to the high ideas for which they fought? Let us strive unselfishly to promote the peace, the welfare and general prosperity of the nation for which such men died.

An amazing comedy, entitled "Leaping Lena or The Flivver Family" was presented at a high school assembly last Friday. Members of the faculty composed the cast.

RED CROSS METHODS SAVE LIFE

Demonstrating artificial respiration to farm boys and girls attending 4-H Club encampment.

SWIMMING is made safer by the American Red Cross, which gives leadership to a country-wide life-saving program. Volunteer instructors are trained and chapter activities supervised. More than 408,000 certificates in life-saving have been issued by the Red Cross since inauguration of the service.

A Billion Dollar Meal

FARMERS must wage chemical warfare against hordes of insects to save their crops. According to George E. Sanders, entomologist of the Bowker Chemical Co., leading makers of insecticides and fungicides in this country, the boll weevil consumes 12 per cent of the cotton crop; the chinch bug causes a loss of $50,000,000 to the wheat crop annually; and the codling moth destroys 18,000,000 bushels of apples. If general spraying of orchards was not practiced, a further loss of 50,000,000 bushels of apples would result. A total loss of $1,000,000,000 to crops is caused annually by insects.

It is as important for the farmers to spray to protect their crops against destruction by insects as it is to properly till the soil and use fertilizers. Spraying must be carried on before insects get a foothold and if the work is postponed or neglected the damage to the crops is effected in a very short time. The farmer should be a minute man in his chemical warfare against insect pests.
